CHERYL POLAKOWSKI (1962-2009)

For those of us within the "A's Family," we mourn the loss of a very special person. Cheryl Polakowski, who had served as an administrative assistant at the A's Papago Park complex in Phoenix, Ariz. since 1995, passed away Sept. 19, 2009 after a six-month battle with pancreatic cancer. She served as more than an administrative assistant, however. Everyone, from players, coaches, trainers, equipment managers and club front office personnel, knew of and appreciated Cheryl's work and warm demeanor. Born and raised in Wayne, Neb., she is survived by sons Matthew and Michael, daughter Krysta, stepdaughter Kimberly, and husband, Ted Polakowski, who continues to serve as director of minor league operations for the A's. Ted, the family and the entire Oakland organization would like to thank the Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.) for their remarkable support during this very personal ordeal.

EXECUTIVE PROFILES

LEWIS WOLFF

Owner and Managing Partner

Heading a limited partnership group that purchased the Oakland A's on April 1, 2005, Lew Wolff wasted little time in emblazoning his stamp on one of baseball's most successful and storied franchises.

The very next season, the A's made their fifth postseason appearance in seven years in 2006, advancing to the American League Championship Series for the first time since 1992. Since then, Wolff has worked tirelessly in exploring possible locations to build a much-needed new ballpark venue, as well as supporting GM Billy Beane's efforts in building a strong foundation for future championship teams through player development and acquisitions. According to many baseball experts, the young and talented A's are now on the threshold of another winning era in Oakland.

Wolff's impact on the Bay Area sports landscape is not limited to baseball. In May of 2006, he reached an agreement with Major League Soccer in an attempt to bring professional soccer back to the Bay Area. The expansion San Jose Earthquakes returned to action in 2008, playing their home games at Santa Clara University's Buck Shaw Stadium and the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Wolff and the Earthquakes ownership group continue to work on securing a soccer-only facility for the team in the South Bay.

Under Wolff's ownership, the A's continue to be one of the most community-minded organizations in all of sports. Last year alone, the A's Community Fund donated approximately $650,000 to various community programs. In 2006, the Wolff family implemented "Dinner on the Diamond," which has raised $362,000 for the A's Community Fund. Lew is also an active participant in the A's Home Run Readers program.

The San Jose Mercury-News ranked Wolff first in its annual listing of the Bay Area's 25 Most Powerful Sports Figures in both 2006 and 2007.

In September 2008, the Silicon Valley Leadership Group presented Wolff with its prestigious "Community Cornerstone Award." The award is given to "a Silicon Valley leader who has displayed a lifetime of impeccable ethics, business achievement and community engagement."

Along the way, the personable Wolff has made a favorable impression among those who follow the team on a regular basis with his easy-going, straight-forward manner and quick-witted humor.

Wolff is the founder of Wolff Urban Development and co-founder of Maritz-Wolff, entities that are involved in the development, acquisition and management of a wide range of commercial, office, parking and hotel properties in a number of California cities including San Jose, Los Angeles, Pasadena and Burbank to name a few.

Wolff's ownership interests in representative hotels and resorts include properties such as The Carlyle in New York City; Four Season Hotels in Houston and Carlsbad; The Ritz-Carlton in St. Louis; Fairmont Hotels in San Jose and San Francisco; Rosewood managed hotels including The Mansion in Dallas, Little Dix Bay, Virgin Gorda, Inn of the Anasazi, Sante Fe plus other brands such as Marriott. In addition, Maritz Wolff has a 50 percent interest in the Dallas-based Rosewood Management Company, which owns and operates luxury hotels and resorts throughout the world.

Wolff began his career in real estate economics and appraisal in his hometown of St. Louis, Mo. before relocating to Los Angeles. In addition to his real estate analysis work, he also served as the president of the 20th Century Fox Realty & Development Company where he managed Fox's worldwide real estate activities.

Wolff is a former minority owner of the St. Louis Blues, the Golden State Warriors and the San Jose Missions, a now-defunct minor league baseball team. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Wisconsin in Madison, a master's degree in business administration from Washington University in St. Louis and is also a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers (MAI).

Last year, he was appointed to the Board of Directors of the new MLB Television Network, which launched in January 2009 with an unprecedented 50 million subscribers, and he continues to serve on the board of Major League Baseball's Enterprises, which oversees national television and radio contract negotiations, national sponsorship and licensing programs as well as the overall marketing of the industry.

Lew resides in the Westwood section of Los Angeles with his wife, Jean. The Wolffs have three children and three grandchildren.

MICHAEL CROWLEY

President

Michael Crowley, one of the rising executives in professional sports today, enters his 13th year with the Athletics' organization and his 12th as team president. He was named to his current position Sept. 28, 1998 and his tenure as president ranks second longest in Oakland history (since 1968).

A limited partner in the Athletics ownership group, Crowley is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the Athletics' organization both on the business and baseball sides of the operation, working directly with owner and managing partner Lew Wolff.

In a dual role, Crowley also serves as president of the Major League Soccer's San Jose Earthquakes. He oversaw the Earthquakes' first-year launch in 2008, and he continues to spearhead the team's efforts to build a new state-of-the-art, soccer-only stadium in San Jose.

After spending three years in the San Jose office of Price Waterhouse and nine years with I.C.I./Fuller O'Brien Paints, Crowley joined the Athletics organization in July 1997 as vice president and chief financial officer. Considered a key figure in the A's resurgence as one of baseball's elite franchises, Crowley has been committed to fielding a championship caliber team with homegrown talent. He works closely with General Manager Billy Beane on key player decisions and issues relating to the baseball operations' overall objectives and philosophies.

Crowley developed a business model with goals and objectives designed to provide an affordable entertainment product on the field, as well as delivering the absolute highest levels of customer service to fans attending games at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. While Crowley stays involved with all aspects of the organization's business affairs, including finance, sales, marketing, public relations and community affairs, he has been at the forefront of building an outstanding team that continues to deliver premium value.

Last year, Crowley was also appointed to Major League Baseball's International Committee.

Crowley's leadership skills and business acumen have also served the A's well in their ongoing efforts to build a new ballpark in the near future.

The A's president also perpetuates the Athletics' tradition of commitment to the greater community. Under his leadership, the A's organization continues to be active in the Oakland community and surrounding areas. The Oakland A's Community Fund supports charitable organizations in their efforts to improve educational programs, aid the underprivileged, assist in crime prevention, service children, seniors and those who work to improve the quality of life throughout the Bay Area.

In 1999, Crowley and his wife, Kathy, played a key role in implementing Breast Cancer Awareness Day, which has raised over $1 million for the American Cancer Society over the last 10 years. Crowley currently serves on the Bay Area's Board of Trustees of KIPP schools, which aims to create a respected, influential and nationwide family of schools that are successful in helping educationally underserved students develop the knowledge, skills and character to succeed in college and the competitive world beyond. He also served on the board of top business executives and community leaders which attempted to land the 2012 Summer Olympic Games in the Bay Area.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

BILLY BEANE

Vice President, General Manager

Considered one of the most progressive and talented baseball executives in the game today, Billy Beane has molded the Athletics into a perennial postseason contender since assuming the general manager's duties shortly following the 1997 season.

Under Beane's watch, the A's have compiled a 1051-891 (.541) record over the last 12 seasons, which is the fourth-best record in the American League and sixth best in all of baseball during that time frame; won four American League West titles (2000; 2002-03; 2006) and secured one AL Wild Card spot (2001). Over the last 10 seasons dating back to the 2000 campaign, the A's have compiled an 890-728 (.550) record, which is also fourth-best record in the AL. His teams have posted 90 or more wins in six of the last 10 years. The A's five postseason appearances since the 2000 season are tied for the sixth most among all Major League teams, trailing only New York-AL (9), St. Louis (7), Boston (6), Los Angeles-AL (6) and Atlanta (6).

In addition, Oakland A's players have garnered numerous individual accolades during his tenure as general manager. Jason Giambi and Miguel Tejada earned American League Most Valuable Player awards in 2000 and 2002, respectively. Barry Zito was named the American League's Cy Young Award winner in 2002 while Bobby Crosby (2004), Huston Street (2005) and Andrew Bailey (2009) have all won AL Rookie of the Year honors.

Beane continually remolds a team that has posted one of the majors' best records over the last past decade, as third baseman Eric Chavez is the only holdover from the 2000 club that captured the American League West Division title. Over the years, his ability to land players such as Kevin Appier, Johnny Damon, Mark Ellis, Cory Lidle, Jermaine Dye, David Justice, Billy Koch, Justin Duchscherer, Keith Foulke, Ted Lilly, Ray Durham, Jose Guillen, Mark Kotsay, Octavio Dotel, Jason Kendall, Dan Haren and Jay Payton has proved instrumental in keying several playoff runs.

During the past two years, Beane's priority was re-stocking the A's minor league system with elite prospects, which will enable the team to sustain winning teams well into the next decade. Remarkably, Beane and Assistant GM David Forst have acquired 22 highly coveted young players by trading essentially eight Major League players (Nick Swisher, Rich Harden, Joe Blanton, Chad Gaudin, Matt Holliday, Orlando Cabrera, Haren and Kotsay) since the end of the 2007 season.

Under Beane, the A's have adopted an organizational philosophy that stresses plate discipline and pitchers who command the strike zone. Young players on the lowest-level minor league teams receive the same doctrine on developing a solid understanding of the strike zone and control pitching as do the players in the majors.

GENERAL MANAGERS OF THE OAKLAND A'S

President	Years
Charles O. Finley	1968-79
Billy Martin	1980-82
Walt Jocketty, Dick Wienek	1983
Sandy Alderson	1983-97
Billy Beane	1997-Present

Some of the names listed my have held other titles than general manager.

Beane's executive talents and the organization's baseball philosophy were the subject of Michael Lewis' best-selling book "Moneyball: The Art of Winning an Unfair Game," which opened the eyes of many of the top sports executives and business CEOs in the nation. As a result, Beane remains in great demand on the national speaking circuit, where he regularly addresses top companies on his management approach of identifying and using undervalued assets to create and sustain a competitive edge. He also sits on the board of directors of several companies, including Bell-Easton Sports, ProTrade and NetSuite, Inc.

Beane was named The Sporting News' Executive of the Year in 1999 and earned Major League Baseball's Executive of the Year honors by Baseball America magazine following the 2002 season. In November of 2001, Beane was named one of Street & Smith's Sport Business Journal's "40 Under 40" list, honoring the nation's top 40 sports executives under the age of 40. In 2004, he was rated 16th on Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal's list of Baseball's Heavy Hitters.

Further demonstrating his eclectic tastes and unique interests, Beane was invited to speak at Rupert Murdoch's News Corp. management retreat in Pebble Beach, Calif. in 2006, an event that focused on issues such as volunteerism, technology and politics, and featured leaders and luminaries from around the world. Among the VIP who attended were British Prime Minister Tony Blair, Israeli Vice Premier Shimon Peres, former President Bill Clinton, former Vice President Al Gore, former House Speaker Newt Gingrich, former Harvard President Lawrence Summer and U2 lead singer Bono.

In 2008, Beane also collaborated with Gingrich and Sen. John Kerry in co-authoring an article in the New York Times offering possible remedies for the U.S. health care crisis.

Beane joined the A's front office staff in 1990 as the club's major league advance scout. In 1993, former A's President and General Manager Sandy Alderson promoted him to the assistant general manager's position when Walt Jocketty left the organization to accept the assistant general manager's job in Colorado. Alderson handed over his general manager's duties to Beane on October 17, 1997.

A first round draft pick (23rd overall) of the New York Mets in the 1980 June Free Agent Draft, Beane played six major league seasons as an infielder, outfielder and catcher for the Mets, Minnesota Twins, Detroit Tigers and Oakland A's. His final season in uniform was 1989 when he was a utility player on the A's World Championship team. Beane retired as an active player in the spring of 1990.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Beane attended Mt. Carmel High School and UC San Diego, where he studied economics. Billy and his wife, Tara, reside in Danville, Calif. with their twins, Brayden and Tinsley. His daughter, Casey, attends Kenyon (Ohio) College.

THE A'S ELEPHANT

After helping form the American League in 1901, New York Giants manager John McGraw dismissed the A's with contempt by calling them "The White Elephants," implying Connie Mack should not by allowed to spend money without supervision. Mack defiantly adopted the White Elephant as the team insignia and in 1902, the Athletics won their first American League pennant.

The White Elephant remained the team's mascot and later that decade, made its first appearance on the A's team sweaters. In 1918, the Elephant saw its first game action when Mack had the pachyderm symbol (in blue with a white "A" inside) placed on the left sleeve of every player.

By 1920, Mack had fully adopted the Elephant as the team's symbol. The traditional "A" on front of the team's jersey was replaced by a blue elephant logo. After a few poor seasons, Mack decided change was in order. So, in 1924, the blue elephant was replaced by the traditional white elephant on the team's jersey and the A's played better ball for the next few years.

In 1928, Mack decided the elephant had worn out its brief welcome on the A's jersey fronts and replaced the logo with the familiar "A" on the uniform. The A's went on to win two World Championships and an AL crown in the next three years, although the resurgence was probably due more to the additions of Foxx, Simmons, Grove and Cochrane than the elephant's absence.

That was the last year for the elephant on the A's uniform until 1955, when the A's, now in Kansas City, added the patch to their uniform sleeves. However, when Charlie Finely purchased the team in the early 1960's, the elephant was once again sent packing and replaced by, of all animals, a mule.

Prior to the 1988 season, the A's brought back a new, more aggressive A's Elephant. In 1995, the traditional A's elephant was reincorporated into many of the team's promotional items and publications and is now a prominent feature on the A's uniform.

2000—Was a non-roster invitee to the Rockies major league spring camp and then split his year between Single-A Salem and Double-A Carolina…threw three complete games in 22 starts at Salem, which tied for second in the Carolina League…was also third in runners per nine innings (10.78) and fifth in walks per nine innings (2.51)…moved to Carolina late in the season and made six starts in his Double-A debut.

SEASON IN REVIEW

2009 RECAP: The A's finished the 2009 season with a 75-87 record, their third consecutive season with a losing record…are one of three American League teams (Baltimore and Kansas City) without a winning record over the last three years…this is the first time the A's have finished with a losing record in three straight seasons since 1993-98 when they had six straight…the A's .463 winning percentage was 10th lowest in Oakland history and it was the worst mark since the 1998 club went 74-88 (.457)…this marks the third consecutive season the A's winning percentage has decreased…the only other times that happened in Oakland history was from 1972-74 and 2003-05…finished in last place in the American League West for the seventh time in Oakland history and the first time since 1998 (also 1977, 1979, 1993, 1995 and 1997)…spent an Athletics record 161 days in last place, including every day beginning May 3…the previous mark was 159 days by the 1921 and 1946 Philadelphia A's…finished 22 games behind Los Angeles in the AL West and tied for seventh in the AL Wild Card, 20 games behind Boston… it marked the first time the A's finished 20 or more games out of the playoffs since 1997 when they were 25 games out in the West…went 31-43 (.419) over the first 74 games, which was the second worst record in the AL and fourth worst in the majors…then played .500 ball (44-44) over the final 88 games beginning June 29…began the season by taking two of three at Los Angeles, but the A's 2-1 record on April 8 would mark Oakland's only day over .500 for the season…were swept by Seattle in the next series to start the home schedule and lost 10 of the first 15 games…a 3-2 win at Seattle May 2 gave the A's a 9-12 record and put them in a tie for third place, just 3½ games out of first place…lost the next day to the Mariners in 15 innings by a score of 8-7 to fall into sole possession of last place and remained there for the rest of the season…that began a stretch where the A's lost 13 of their next 19 games to fall to 15-25 on May 23, which was the third worst record after 40 games in Oakland history…had a season best seven-game winning streak from June 2 to 8 to improve to 26-30 and were just 6½ games behind Texas in the AL West…then lost 19 of the next 28 games from June 9 to July 10 and nearly doubled their deficit, falling 12½ games behind the Rangers…won the next two games to go into the All-Star Break with a 37-49 record…began the second half of the season by playing 28 consecutive days without a day off from July 16 to Aug. 12…that was the longest stretch of consecutive days with a game in the history of the Athletics franchise... the previous high was 27 from May 30-June 25, 1961 and June 15-July 11, 1976…were originally scheduled to have July 23 off, but made up the April 20 rainout at New York that day…went 14-14 over the 28-day stretch…were a season-high 17 games under .500 on Sept. 4 (59-76) but then went 16-4 over the next 20 games, including a season high tying seven-game winning streak from Sept. 14 to 20…were officially eliminated from the AL West September 13 in game 142 and were eliminated from the playoffs Sept. 15 in game 144…in 2008, the A's were officially eliminated from the playoffs in game 143…pulled to within five games of .500 Sept. 26 at 75-80…then lost each of the final seven games, which was the A's longest losing streak of the season…it was also the second longest season-ending losing streak in Oakland history to a nine-game streak that concluded the 1995 season.

OFFENSE: The A's batted .262, which ranked ninth in the American League but was the 10th best batting average in Oakland history…hit 135 home runs, which was the fewest in the AL and fourth fewest in the majors… it marked the first time in Oakland history the A's ranked last in the AL in home runs…the last Athletics team to finish last was the 1967 Kansas City A's…over the last 20 years, the only A's team to hit fewer home runs in a non-strike season is the 2008 club, which finished with 125… finished last in the AL in slugging for the second consecutive season (.397)…also tied for third in the AL in fewest extra base hits (463) and had the fourth lowest on-base percentage (.328)…walked just 527 times, which were the A's fewest walks in a non-strike season since 1985 when they had 508…were walked just 16 times intentionally…since the intentional walk became an official statistic in 1955, the only Major League team with fewer intentional walks in a season is the 1961 Kansas City A's (10)… ranked second in the AL in sacrifice flies (54)…had 307 doubles, the fifth time in Oakland history the A's topped the 300 plateau…had 31 sacrifice hits, which were the most by an A's team since 1999 (39)…the A's number three hitters batted .237, which was the lowest mark in the majors…also ranked last in the majors with a mark of .228 in 2008.

PITCHING: The A's pitching staff set an Athletics franchise record with 1124 strikeouts, breaking the mark of 1117 set in 2001…compiled a 4.26 ERA, which was third lowest in the American League behind Seattle (3.87) and Chicago (4.14)…now have a 3.95 ERA since 2001, which is the lowest mark in the AL over that span…only Los Angeles (3.89) and Atlanta (3.92) have a lower mark in the majors…allowed the fewest home runs in the AL (156) and hit the fewest batters (36)…the hit batters were the A's fewest in a non-strike season since 1990 (27)…had the third lowest opponents slugging percentage in the AL (.413), tied for the third fewest wild pitches (43) and tied for the fourth fewest walks (523)…ranked fifth in opponents on-base percentage (.329) and seventh in opponents batting (.265)…had a strikeout to walk ratio of 2.15, which was third best in Oakland history…had just two balks, which tied for the fewest in the AL…the only times in Oakland history the A's balked fewer than two times was in 1974 and 2000 when they had one.

STARTING PITCHING: A's starting pitchers were 51-64 with a 4.76 ERA and .279 opponents batting average…the ERA and opponents average were fourth highest in the American League and they also had the fourth fewest wins and fourth most losses…the ERA was the highest by an A's team since 1999 (4.96)…had just two complete games, which tied with Baltimore for the fewest in the AL, and 888.0 innings pitched, which was second lowest ahead of the Orioles (877.2)…the complete games matched the fewest in Athletics history (1997) and the innings pitched were second fewest in a non-strike season (858.2 in 1997)…also had the fewest hit batters in the AL (23), the third fewest wild pitches (20) and the third highest on-base percentage (.342).

ROOKIE STARTERS: The A's started a rookie pitcher in an Oakland record 116 games, breaking the previous mark of 93 set in 1983…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the last team to have more starts by rookie pitchers is the 1998 Florida Marlins (124)…eight different rookies started a game, matching the Oakland record from 1983…started a rookie in 89 of the final 114 games and had at least four rookies in the rotation from June 2, when Vin Mazzaro was recalled, through the end of the season…had a streak of 15 consecutive games started by a rookie pitcher from Aug. 1 to 16, which is an Oakland record, breaking the previous mark of five…it was the longest streak by any team since the 1997 St. Louis Cardinals started a rookie in each of their last 19 games…Brett Anderson had a team-leading 11 wins and Trevor Cahill added 10 as the A's became just the 13th team since 1900 with at least two 10-game winners under the age of 22…Cahill led the A's with 32 starts and Anderson had 30, making the A's the fourth team since 1900 with two pitchers under the age of 22 with 30 or more starts (1980 White Sox, 1969 Padres, 1957 Cubs)…the A's had just three pitchers over the age of 27 start a game and those three pitchers combined for just eight starts (Tomko 6, Giese 1, Reineke 1)…the A's are one of just four teams since 1900 to have nine pitchers under the age of 27 make at least five starts (2009 Nationals, 1966 A's, 1909 Red Sox)…used a total of 12 rookie pitchers, which is the most in Oakland history, topping the previous mark of 10 set in 1983 and matched in 2008…rookie pitchers combined for 232 appearances, topping the previous Oakland high of 203 from 2008.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

NINTH INNING COMEBACKS

Only once in Oakland history have the A's trailed by four or more runs heading into their last at bats and come back to win the game. On September 7, 2005, the A's trailed Seattle, 7-3, going into the bottom of the ninth at the Coliseum, but rallied for five runs in the inning for a 8-7 victory. The A's won the game when Eddie Guardado walked Nick Swisher with the bases loaded, scoring Jay Payton with the winning run. Prior to this contest, the last time the A's rallied from a deficit of four or more runs in their last at bat to win a game was on July 4, 1957 in the first game of a doubleheader against the Chicago White Sox. The A's trailed 4-0 heading into their last at bat, only to rally for five runs to pull out a 5-4 victory. Gus Zernial's single to left off Dixie Howell scored Hector Lopez and Joe DeMaestri with the tying and winning runs.

MARCUS JENSEN

Manager

Marcus Jensen begins his second season as manager of the Arizona A's after spending two years as the hitting coach.

Jensen, a former catcher, was drafted by San Francisco in the 33rd round of the 1990 June draft. He spent the first six years of his career playing at various levels in the Giants minor league system before making his Major League debut on April 14, 1996. He compiled a .184 batting average while playing in 145 career games with San Francisco (1996-1997), Detroit (1997), Milwaukee (1998; 2002), St. Louis (1999), Minnesota (2000), Boston (2001) and Texas (2001). He spent the 2003 season with the Yankee's Triple-A affiliate before closing out his career playing for various independent league teams from 2004-2006. In addition, Jensen was a member of the 2000 U.S. Olympic team that defeated Cuba for the gold medal.

Jensen makes his off-season home in Scottsdale, Ariz. with his son, Marcus.

ARIEL PRIETO

Pitching Coach

Ariel Prieto enters his second season as pitching coach of Oakland's Arizona League affiliate.

A former A's 1st round draft selection (5th pick overall) in the June 1995 draft, Prieto spent five seasons with Oakland (1995-2000) and one campaign with Tampa Bay (2001). He was the A's Opening Night starter in 1997, recording a career-high 22 starts and team-best six wins that season. The right-handed pitcher spent stints on the disabled list each season before undergoing multiple surgeries in 1998 and missing all of the 1999 season due to injury. He compiled a 15-24 record and 4.85 ERA in 70 career appearances, 60 starts. From 2003-05, Prieto played in the minor leagues. He was with a winter league team in Mexico in 2006.

Prieto is a graduate of Fajardo University in the Isle of Pines, Cuba. He was a member of the Cuban National team from 1990-94, where he set the national team record for strikeouts in one game when he fanned 20 at Nicaragua in 1990.

A native of Havana, Cuba, Prieto makes his offseason home in Miami, Fla. with his wife, Janet, and daughters, Ariel and Melanea.

JUAN DILONE

Hitting Coach

Juan Dilone returns for his second season in his second stint as the hitting coach for the Arizona A's. He also held the position in 2004 before spending four seasons as coordinator of Dominican instruction. He previously served as hitting coach at Visalia (2002) and Vancouver (2003).

Dilone signed a free agent contract with Oakland in 1990 and spent six seasons (1991-94; 96-97) in the A's farm system. A former infielder, Dilone spent his final two seasons at Single-A Modesto, where he batted a career-best .265 with 14 home runs in 1996.

A native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, Dilone makes his offseason home in Higuey, Dominican Republic.

OAKLAND'S 20-GAME WINNING STREAK

During the 2002 season, the Oakland Athletics set an American League record by winning 20 consecutive games from August 13 to September 4. It was the third longest winning streak in the Major Leagues since 1900 and was the longest in 67 years. The streak broke the previous American League record of 19 set by the 1906 Chicago White Sox (Aug. 2 to 23) and matched by the 1947 New York Yankees (June 29 to July 17). The streak also bettered the previous Athletics franchise record of 17 set in 1931 (May 5 to 25) as well as the previous Oakland record of 14 set in 1988 (April 23 to May 9). The A's outscored the opposition 141-65 during the streak and trailed in just 10 of the 180 innings. Here's a game-by-game look at Oakland's American League-record 20-game winning streak.

JIM "CATFISH" HUNTER AWARD

In 2004, the Oakland Athletics implemented the Jim "Catfish" Hunter Award, which is given annually to an A's player whose play on the field and conduct in the clubhouse best exemplifies the courageous, competitive and inspirational spirit demonstrated by the A's late Hall of Fame pitcher.

A native of Hertford, North Carolina, Hunter posted a 224-166 record to go along with a 3.26 ERA in his 15-year Major League career with the Kansas City/Oakland Athletics and New York Yankees. He holds Oakland's all-time career mark for wins (131) and won 20 or more games in five consecutive seasons (1971-75). In 1974, he won the American League's Cy Young Award after winning a career-high 25 games.

"Catfish" earned five World Series rings during his career and was 4-0 with one save in seven World Series appearances with the A's. An eight-time All-Star, he made his major league debut in 1965 with the Kansas City Athletics and did not miss a start until the 1977 season. He was inducted to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987.

"Catfish" was diagnosed with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (Lou Gehrig's Disease) in September of 1998 and died of complications from the disease on September 9, 1999 at the age of 53.

Winners of the Jim "Catfish" Hunter Award include Tim Hudson (2004), Mark Ellis (2005; 07), Jason Kendall (2006), Mike Sweeney (2008) and Kurt Suzuki (2009).

OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM

The Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum plays host to concerts, conventions and other large gatherings in addition to serving as the home for the Oakland Athletics and Oakland Raiders.

The A's have used the facility to its advantage over the years, posting the third best home record (532-359, .597) in the Major Leagues over the last 11 seasons. In 2003, the A's set an Oakland record for home wins as they finished with a 57-24 (.704) record in the Coliseum, marking the most home wins in franchise history since 1931 when the Philadelphia Athletics went 60-15 at home. In addition, two of the A's World Championships have been clinched on the Coliseum's turf. The Coliseum's exceptional sight lines, fine weather and sizable staging areas have all contributed to its popularity among performers, promoters and the Bay Area public.

The facility is conveniently located adjacent to I-880 with two exits (Hegenberger Road/66th Avenue) leading directly to the complex. Along with the Oracle Arena, which is located adjacently, it is the only major entertainment facility with a dedicated stop on the Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) system. The Oakland International Airport is less than a two-mile drive from the Coliseum with shuttle service to several local hotels and restaurants.

In October of 1995, the Coliseum began a one-year, $120 renovation project that added 22,000 new seats, 90 luxury suites, two private clubs and two state-of-the-art scoreboards.

The first crowd filled the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum on Sept. 8, 1966, when the AFL's Oakland Raiders played the Kansas City Chiefs. The adjacent arena celebrated its grand opening on Nov. 9, 1966, when the Oakland Seals met the San Diego Gulls in hockey. In the ensuing 42 years, the facility has hosted every conceivable event in the entertainment industry. Audiences numbering nearly 100 million have made the Coliseum and Arena the premier entertainment facilities in Northern California.

The Coliseum is currently one of only two stadiums in the country that houses both a MLB and NFL team, the others being Land Shark Stadium in Miami, Fla. (Marlins and Dolphins).

ATHLETICS ON THE AIR

KEN KORACH

Radio Play-by-Play

Ken Korach, one of the most respected broadcasters in baseball today, enters his 15th year in the A's radio booth and his fifth as the team's lead play-by-play voice.

Prior to joining the A's in 1996, Korach served as a member of the Chicago White Sox broadcasting crew from 1992-95, working mostly weekend games. During the same period, he also handled broadcasting duties for the Las Vegas Stars of the Pacific Coast League and served as the Stars lead play-by-play voice from 1989-91.

In 2009, he also teamed with analyst Dave Campbell to do the play-by-play for two national ESPN Radio games.

In addition to his baseball work, Korach has 22 years of experience broadcasting college basketball and 14 years of college football experience. From 1985-92, he was the radio voice for San Jose State football and basketball games and later served as lead play-by-play announcer for UNLV basketball (1992-2004) and football (1992-95). He has been in the booth for two California Bowls, a pair of Las Vegas Bowls, the 1993 Peach Bowl and the 1994 Senior Bowl. The Associated Press' Radio and Television Association voted his 1986 broadcast of the San Jose State-Fresno State football game the best radio broadcast of the year for California and Nevada.

Korach began his baseball broadcasting career with the Redwood Pioneers of the California League, providing radio description in both 1981 and 1984. In 1985, he was hired by KCBS Radio as a part-time anchor and voice of San Jose State football. He also was a member of the Triple-A Phoenix Firebirds broadcast crew from 1986-87.

In 2001, Korach was named the Nevada Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association in addition to being named the best two-sport broadcaster and among the "Best 100 People, Place and Things in Las Vegas" by Las Vegas Life Magazine. In 2003, he was inducted into the Nevada Broadcasters Hall of Fame.

A native of Los Angeles, Korach attended San Diego State and UC Santa Barbara, where he graduated with a degree in social sciences in 1975. Ken's wife, Denise, serves as the manager of baseball administration for the Toronto Blue Jay's Triple-A affiliate in Las Vegas, while his father formerly served as the head baseball coach at Verdugo Hills High School in Los Angeles and at Los Angeles Valley Community College.

Ken has also taken an active role in the community, initiating "Korach's Winning for the Community" program in 2008, which has raised more than $50,000 for Oakland Athletic League high school baseball programs to fund equipment, uniforms and field maintenance in its first two years. Korach personally donated $15,000 of the total, while the A's matched his donation and local businesses and individuals provided the remaining contribution.

Korach, who serves on the Advisory Board of the Oakland Tech High School "Field of Dreams" committee, was honored last summer – along with Bay Area broadcaster Marty Lurie – by the Oakland School Board with a proclamation for his generosity and support.

Ken and Denise reside in Henderson, Nev. with their daughter, Emilee.

VINCE COTRONEO

Radio Play-by-Play

Vince Cotroneo begins his fifth season in the A's radio booth, where he again will work with broadcast partners Ken Korach and Ray Fosse in continuing the team's tradition of broadcasting excellence.

Prior to joining the A's, Cotroneo spent six seasons (1998-2003) as an announcer on the Texas Rangers broadcasts, where he partnered with Eric Nadel on the Rangers Radio Network. He also worked a handful of games on the television side during the 2002 season. Cotroneo joined the Rangers broadcast team in 1998 after spending seven seasons (1990-96) with the Houston Astros.

A 21-year broadcasting veteran, Cotroneo began his career with the Single-A Lynchburg Mets in 1984. He spent the next three seasons with the Double-A El Paso Diablos in the Milwaukee system before moving onto the Triple-A Iowa Cubs for the 1988 season. In his only season with Iowa, he was selected as the National Association's Minor League Announcer of the Year. Cotroneo joined the Astros organization the following season and was the radio voice of the Tucson Toros for two seasons (1989-90) before landing his first Major League job with the Astros in 1991.

A 1983 graduate of the University of Central Florida, Cotroneo and his wife, Veronica, have three children, Dominic, Olivia and Sophia.

RAY FOSSE

Radio and Television Analyst

Ray Fosse, former two-time major league all-star catcher and Emmy Award-winning broadcaster, celebrates his 25th consecutive season on radio and his 22nd season in the television booth as the A's game analyst.

Fosse, a 12-year major league veteran, played for the Cleveland Indians, Oakland A's, Seattle Mariners and Milwaukee Brewers, compiling a .256 batting average with 61 home runs. A native of Marion, Ill., Fosse attended Southern Illinois University, and was Cleveland's No. 1 draft pick in 1965. He made his major league debut with the Tribe in 1967 and spent the next six seasons in Cleveland. Fosse enjoyed his most productive season in 1970 when he batted .307 with a career-high 18 home runs and 61 RBI. He was named the American League All-Star catcher, received the Rawlings Gold Glove as the best defensive catcher in the American League, and was voted Co-Man of the Year with Sam McDowell that season.

In 1971, Fosse was named starting catcher for the American League All-Star Team and received his second Rawlings Gold Glove. He was traded to the Oakland A's in 1973, and played for the 1973 and 1974 World Champions in Oakland. In 2002, Fosse was voted one of the 100 greatest players in Cleveland Indians' history.

Ray and his wife, Carol, were married April 4, 1970, and reside in California and Arizona, where they are active in several charitable organizations. They have two daughters, Nikki and Lindsey, and one grandson, Matthew.

OAKLAND A'S IN THE COMMUNITY

Community FUND

The Oakland Athletics organization, in conjunction with the A's Community Fund, strives to make a positive impact in the Bay Area and Northern California. A's players, coaches, and front office employees, together with fans and sponsors, are committed to meeting the social, cultural and educational demands in the community. The A's host numerous fundraising events, have implemented several educational programs, support various causes and organizations and connect with many different people.

Information regarding Oakland Athletics community programs can be found online at oaklandathletics.com. Requests for donations and player appearances must be submitted in writing and addressed to the following: Oakland Athletics, Community Relations, 7000 Coliseum Way, Oakland, CA 94621.

OAKLAND A'S COMMUNITY FUND: The Oakland A's Community Fund supports more than 1,500 charitable organizations through monetary contributions and donated auction items each season in its efforts to support charitable organizations in improving the quality of life for people throughout the Bay Area. Specifically, the Fund supports endeavors to improve educational programs, aid the underprivileged, assist in crime and drug prevention, promote health awareness, and champion children and senior welfare. The A's Community Fund believes in the need to invest in the community's future. The A's Community Fund donates approximately $650,000 annually to various community programs.

A'S BREAST CANCER AWARENESS DAY: The A's host a Breast Cancer Awareness Day each year to raise funds for breast cancer education and research. Funds are raised through commemorative pins and caps, an A's autographed quilt raffle and sponsor support. Pre-game ceremonies include the formation of a symbolic human pink ribbon on the field by over 300 Bay Area survivors, the release of white doves as a symbol of hope and a presentation of the "Gift of Faith" grant, which donates $5,000 annually to a local grassroots breast cancer charity in memory of the late Faith Fancher, longtime KTVU Channel 2 reporter. Over the past 11 years, the A's have raised over $1,075,000 for breast cancer education and research on A's Breast Cancer Awareness Day.

MUG ROOT BEER FLOAT DAY: Each year the A's and Pepsi host MUG Root Beer Float Day to raise funds for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Proceeds are raised through the sale of root beer floats, tips given in exchange for autographs and pictures with the celebrity scoopers, the sale of autographed mugs and a silent auction of sports memorabilia. Over the past 10 years, the A's have raised over $270,000 for various charities through MUG Root Beer Float Day.

HOME RUN READERS PROGRAM: The A's Home Run Readers program encourages teachers to establish reading goals for their students based on each child's individual reading level. As incentives, A's players, coaches, mascot Stomper and front office employees visit participating schools to congratulate the students and to encourage them to continue reading, both inside and outside of the classroom. Students who participate in the program attend the game on Home Run Readers Day as guests of the A's and California Police Youth Charities.

"MATHLETICS" PROGRAM: The "Mathletics" program is a unique program designed to stress the importance of math among Bay Area youth. The A's design and distribute workbooks to participating schools which utilize simple formulas for calculating statistics of A's players. Students who complete their workbooks correctly and submit the answer sheet to the A's, receive two ticket vouchers. In addition, one school that demonstrates outstanding participation in the program receives a visit from an A's player. The "Mathletics" program is sponsored by Ross Dress For Less and Comcast SportsNet California.

GREEN STAMPEDE HOMEWORK CLUB: Before select A's home games, volunteers from local public schools offer tutoring for at-risk students at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Students who attend the study group are rewarded with tickets to that night's game and if they attend all eight sessions they receive a visit from an A's player.

TAKE THE FIELD WITH THE A'S: Prior to select games, members of local baseball and softball teams accompany A's players as they take the field, stand with them during the National Anthem and receive an autographed baseball.

LITTLE LEAGUE DAYS: Members of organized youth baseball programs are offered discounted group ticket prices to attend one of the two designated Little League Days with the A's. Little Leaguers (age 14 and under) attend a pre-game festival, are greeted by A's players as they parade around the field and receive the A's kid's giveaway item for that date.

FIELD RENOVATIONS: The A's Community Fund, in partnership with the Good Tidings Foundation, renovates a local baseball or softball field in order to provide local youth a state-of-the-art facility. Over the past few years, the A's and Good Tidings Foundation renovated the baseball and softball fields at Washington High School in Fremont, Rickey Henderson Baseball Field located at the Arroyo Viejo Recreation Center in East Oakland and Bambino Field at the Greenman Field Baseball Complex.

A'S AMIGOS: The A's Amigos program gives Hispanic children the opportunity to hear an A's player speak about the importance of education, sportsmanship and hard work. In addition to a pre-game visit, each child receives a game ticket and an A's hat. The A's Amigos program is sponsored by Kelly-Moore Paints.

LITTLE A'S: Each year, over 10,000 children from low to moderate-income families are treated to A's games and receive an A's pin and a pennant as part of the Little A's program.

HOLIDAY PARTY: The A's Community Fund, Aquafina, Round Table Pizza, and the Oakland Zoo host an annual holiday party for local school children. Current and former A's players are present to sign autographs and distribute gifts to each child. The holiday festival includes pizza and water, carnival games, face painters, a tour of the Children's Zoo and appearances from the A's mascot Stomper and Santa Claus.

HOLIDAY CARAVAN: During the offseason, current and former A's players and the A's mascot Stomper make stops around the Bay Area during the A's Holiday Caravan. The caravan features visits to schools, hospitals, shelters, meet-and-greets and appearances at holiday parades and malls and other public places.

TICKET PURCHASE PROGRAM: Oakland A's players, the A's Community Fund and corporate sponsors purchase and donate thousands of tickets to various charitable and non-profit groups each season.

SILENT AUCTION: The A's Community Fund holds silent auctions of various sports memorabilia behind section 120 on all Saturday and Sunday home dates. The A's Community Fund donates a portion of the proceeds to designated charitable groups as a silent auction partner on selected dates throughout the season.

A'S COMMUNITY FUND GOLF CLASSIC: This annual tournament pairs participants with A's players, former players, coaches and front office employees for a day of golf at one of the Bay Area's top courses. The event, sponsored by Chevron and State Roofing Systems of San Leandro, features breakfast, tee prizes, an awards dinner banquet and live and silent auctions of sports memorabilia and other prizes. All proceeds benefit the Oakland A's Community Fund.

A'S DINNER ON THE DIAMOND: This annual dinner with A's players and their families is hosted by A's Owner and Managing Partner Lew Wolff and his daughter Kari Wolff, with proceeds benefiting the Oakland A's Community Fund. A's Dinner on the Diamond is sponsored by the Wolff and Fisher families.
